My name is Ian and I am looking to purchase a travel trailer. Looking for those in overall good shape. I am open to those needing minor work and I understand most older campers in New England may have had a leak or soft spot at one time or another but I do not want anything older than the year 2000. I also purchase units without titles. Here are some of the parameters I am looking for - 15-32 ...

For those looking to pursue the used route, one of the biggest benefits of buying a used trailer is the cost. While we all love the bells and whistles of buying things brand new, If you know your budget, know what you're looking for, and do your research with the right experts (that's us!), you can often find a used rig that checks all your boxes at a fraction of the price. Plus, you'll end up ...
