The paper was presented at the Eranos-Tagung in 1945 and the lecture was first published in printed form in 1946, but the translation cited is actually based on a revision published in 1948 (Jung 1948/1969, p. 207, note), so the table of contents date is best.

Citing from the Collected Works of C.G. Jung

Biography What a big disappointment. I spent lots of time researching to find the best book about Jung, by the most qualified biographer/writer. Despite the author's sterling credentials, and a wasted week of reading the 640 pages (the rest being notes and an index), for the most part, I still don't have a clue about: 1. Jung's thought processes about "the collective unconscious", how he ...
