Don't put all your eggs in one basket.

Try to diversify as much as you can to lower your risk exposure, ie, invest in different companies, industries and regions. If you're saving over the short term, it's wise not to take too much of a risk. It's recommended you invest for at least five years.

Don't go all out at first, just pick up a pair of needles (U.S. size 6 to 8 is perfect for beginners), a ball of yarn (medium weight is easiest for learning), and a crochet hook or yarn needle. The rest will come later, so save your money until you get into it and have a better idea of what you need (or want).
