The Equal Rights Amendment contains
three short sections.
The most important is Section 1, which says:
“Equality of rights
under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.”
(Section 2 gives Congress the power to enforce Section 1;
Section 3 simply states that the ERA would

If the prep programs can condense the first semester of law school into a week or a day, I can go them one better: I offer below the first year of law school in about five minutes. With thanks to Don Novello, who, as Father Guido Sarducci, created the five-minute university, I present the five-minute law school.
